Juju 'Round The World is a Non-fiction international children's book series that details the journey of a 5-year-old African American girl as she moves from Atlanta, GA to Japan with her mom and brother. As with many people, fear of the unknown is scary. Could you imagine a drastic change at such a young age? Juju quickly finds out that all change isn't bad as she embraces the new culture introduced to her. This international travel series aims to bridge the gap between what is often thought of as the impossible for many people of color within inner cities in the US with the rest of the world. Join Juju as she meets new people and explores different cultures while traveling the world with her family.
