During the first two decades of the 20th century the police in England and Wales recorded an average of 90,000 indictable offences each year, a figure which increased to over 500,000 during the 1950s. The crime rate consequently quadrupled from 250 crimes per 100,000 people in 1901 to 1,000 by 1950. But the history of crime in the 20th century is dominated by the even sharper rise in offences recorded by the police since the late 1950s.
