"Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" is a hymn with words taken from a longer poem, "The Brewing of Soma" by American Quaker poet John Greenleaf Whittier. The adaptation was made by Garrett Horder in his 1884 Congregational Hymns. In the United Kingdom, the hymn is usually sung to the tune "Repton" by Hubert Parry. In the US, the prevalent tune is "Rest" by Frederick Charles Maker.

Dear Lord And Father Of Mankind - Lyrics, Hymn Meaning and ...

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind first appeared in "The Atlantic Monthly," in 1872. It was part of an extended narrative poem entitled, The Brewing of Soma. The subject was futile attempts of an order of pagan priests to achieve a religious experience through drinking an intoxicating brew. W. Garrett Horder adapted the hymn for congregational singing, including it in a collection entitled, "Worship Song," published in London, in 1884.

"Popular thought-leader and blogger explores a biblical spirituality that makes our mind and body relevant"--Provided by publisher.

Our journey through life is filled with the unexpected. We encounter unexpected joy, sorrow, trouble and pain. These are the experiences that shape us and make us the unique individuals we are today. We all struggle with our own personal demons, even though they may seem strange or insignificant to others. Pain is always lonely, whether physical, mental, emotional or spiritual, and no one except our Creator can fully understand. As we face the challenges of life, we come face to face with the need for something or someone greater than ourselves to sustain, guide and comfort us. Only when we fall before our mighty Creator and begin to comprehend his incredible power, love, and forgiveness, do we find what is missing and the huge hole in our heart and soul is filled. In this book we look into Jans heart and share some of the pain and joy of her journey. It is her prayer that you, the reader, will see that our Heavenly Father is waiting with open arms to meet your every need as only He can. Even when we are not aware of His presences, or maybe dont even care, He is patiently waiting, seeking us and pulling us back to Him.

The Song Index features over 150,000 citations that lead users to over 2,100 song books spanning more than a century, from the 1880s to the 1990s. The songs cited represent a multitude of musical practices, cultures, and traditions, ranging from ethnic to regional, from foreign to American, representing every type of song: popular, folk, children's, political, comic, advertising, protest, patriotic, military, and classical, as well as hymns, spirituals, ballads, arias, choral symphonies, and other larger works. This comprehensive volume also includes a bibliography of the books indexed; an index of sources from which the songs originated; and an alphabetical composer index.

This beautiful blend of 620 traditional and new favorite hymns and worship readings will appeal to a wide range of ages, traditions, and ethnicities and will enrich the worship life of the congregation.

"The two most important days of your life are the day you were born and the day you find out why." -Mark Twain Our basic need as individuals is to know who we are, but what if I were to tell you how you cannot know who you are until you know what you are and you cannot know what you are until you know where you came from, who created you and what He created you to be, the life He intended you to live. Our internal need to find our identity will never be satisfied outside of our person through talents, careers, relationships, or possessions and can only be found and met internally, in knowing our spiritual identity as sons of the one and only living God. Jesus came to show us the pattern of life created for us by the Father. He demonstrated this existence through the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, goodness, faithfulness, and temperance. When you see Jesus, you see the Father, but what if, when you see yourself, you also see the Father? Dear Lord, Where Are You? will show you what it means to live the life that was intended without fear, worry, self-doubt, and unrealistic, worldly demands of the group. It's time we take our place; it's time we learn who we are and why we are here. Allow truth to unfold for you, spend time with it, absorb it, and I promise you, you will not come out the same way you went in, and suddenly all the questions you ever had about life will be fulfilled. You will wander no more.
