Make it don't buy it: piccalilli. Piccalilli isn't one of those foods we give much thought to these days. Perhaps you have a jar of this yellow pickle lurking at the back of the cupboard, or enjoy it as part of an occasional Ploughman's or with cold meats. Shop-bought versions of piccalilli can err on the sweet or synthetic-tasting side, and have alarmingly lurid sauces, so making your own is well worth the effort.
