Edhi's own passion for healing dates back to his childhood. At age 11, he was obliged to care for his mother, who was paralyzed with a severe diabetic condition. "I bathed her, changed her and fed her," he recalls in his 1996 autobiography, A Mirror to the Blind. "Taking care of my mother made me ponder the misery of others who suffered; from that time on, I began to think of how I could help them. and to dream of building hospitals and a village for the handicapped."
