Fiction Book Review: English Passengers by Matthew Kneale ...

ENGLISH PASSENGERS embodies a refreshing approach to historical fiction and an exquisite challenge to both readers and writers. A fictionalized tale of the British colonials in the 19th century, ENGLISH PASSENGERS emanates from two different locations --- a sailing ship bound for Tasmania and the island of Tasmania itself.

One of the narrators of Matthew Kneale's ambitious historical novel English Passengers has more modest aspirations: Captain Illiam Quillian Kewley wants only to smuggle a little tobacco, brandy and French pornography from the Isle of Mann to a secluded beach in England. Yet somehow in the process he and his crew end up weighing anchor for Australia.
