Google Home is a connected home accessory that can control gadgets in the home, play music and provides answers from Google Search. The device is a smart-home speaker that is voice- activated and connects to the internet; it uses AI- powered Google Assistant (that is artificial intelligence) which is able to provide more than the average response seen in its competitor. In addition, Google Home is able to provide you with a weather update, the cost for plane tickets and allow you to listen to the morning news. It was released in early November last year as a part of Google ' s “ Made By Google ” brand of products and is activated by “ Ok Google ” .

In 2016, Google announced it was getting into the home assistant business with Google Home. The smart device allowed users to essentially have a computer controlled by their voice. Google was just getting started. In 2017, Google released two more devices: the Google Home Mini and Google Home Max. Finally, in 2018, Google announced that its smart speaker would get a whole lot more visual with the Google Home Hub. The Google Home Hub is a hybrid of two worlds--a device that works best with both your voice and by touch. The same voice commands as the non-touch Google Home's are there, but a screen gives it the extra touch you need to control things in your home like security cameras. It's original, powerful, and just a little weird! It's unlike anything you've ever used--not quite a tablet, not quite a voice assistant, not quite a computer--it's a Hub! Because it's a little weird, it takes some getting used to; this guide will walk you through what you need to know to get the most out of the powerful display. Ready to get started?!

Google Home is a revolutionary voice enabled wireless speaker that has been developed by Google. It was originally announced in May 2016 at the I/O conference. It is the first time Google is going into the smart speaker market and it will accommodate the Google Assistant feature. This will operate alongside Allo and Duo. This product bears similarity to Amazon Echo which makes it a direct competitor in that industry. Currently it is scheduled to be released in 2016 but there has been no specified release date.
