Only if threatened will they attack. According to "Hilda and the Hidden People", Trolls are as wary of humans as humans are of them. Some trolls like to hoard treasures. "Hilda and the Mountain King" shows that Trundle liked to collect gold and jewels, which can still be found in the ruins of his castle. But because these kind of valuables are hard to come by in this day and age, most trolls have settled for more modest objects to hoard.
