For human resources, here are the five essential skills of a leader: 1. Communicate Effectively. For a leader, nothing is more important than effective communication. Nothing. There ' s an old saying, " Blame the teacher, not the student, " and that ' s why leaders, directors, supervisors, and managers take the brunt of the blame. It ' s not to make them into scapegoats, it ' s because if their team fails, it is their fault; their own inability to communicate effectively.
