If management is reactive, leadership is proactive.

Management is based more on written communication, while leadership is based more on verbal communication. The organizations which are over managed and under-led do not perform upto the benchmark. Leadership accompanied by management sets a new direction and makes efficient use of resources to achieve it. Both leadership and management are essential for individual as well as

Leadership and Management - Relationship & Differences

Leadership is a skill of influencing others while Management is the quality of the ruling. Leadership demands foresightedness of leader, but Management has a short range vision. In leadership, principles and guidelines are established, whereas, in the case of management, policies and procedures are implemented.
Leadership is Proactive. Conversely, management is reactive in nature. Leadership brings change.

Leadership and management - Skills for Care Leadership can be linked to the position of management; a manager can be a leader as well as a manager. Therefore, certain skills and qualities, which are required for both management and leadership, are bound to overlap in the two systems.
