Men Are Like Waffles — Women Are Like Spaghetti - Wikipedia

We like to think of them this way: Men are like waffles; women are like spaghetti. At the very beginning of history God said, " 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.' So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them" (Genesis 1:26-27). It was in God's plan to make men and women different from each other from the moment He imagined us.

Men Are Like Waffles—Women Are Like Spaghetti

"Men are like waffles, women are like spaghetti." This was the sage advice that my Big gave me after a devastating heartbreak the fall of my freshman year. We were riding in her car back down to my parent's house where I sat teary-eyed and confused, and I couldn't wrap my head around how the man of my dreams could simply cut me out of his life like he had earlier that day.

Understanding the unique way of thinking each gender brings to your marriage can improve communication with and appreciation for your spouse. We like to think of it like this: Men are like waffles; women are like spaghetti. When we say that men are like waffles, we do not mean that men “waffle” on all decisions and are generally unstable.

Understand How a Man's Brain Is Like a Waffle - Focus on ...

One helpful way to think about our brains is that men’s brains are like waffles and women’s brains are like a plate of spaghetti. Stay with me here. It really is an apt analogy. We’ve frequently heard that men “compartmentalize.” And, women quickly relate to that notion. It seems that men’s brains are like a big Belgian waffle with defined compartments, each for one thing and one thing only.
