Militia

A militia (/ m ? ? l ? ? ? /) is generally an army or some other fighting organization of non-professional soldiers, citizens of a country, or subjects of a state, who may perform military service during a time of need, as opposed to a professional force of regular, full-time military personnel, or (historically) to members of a warrior nobility class (e.g. knights or samurai).

Militia | Definition of Militia by Merriam-Webster

Militia, military organization of citizens with limited military training, which is available for emergency service, usually for local defense. In many countries the militia is of ancient origin; Macedonia under Philip II (d. 336 bc), for example, had a militia of clansmen in border regions who could be called to arms to repel invaders.
