Outies (Moties, #3) by Jennifer R. Pournelle

It was touted as Mote Series Book 3 but bore little relation to the preceding books in the series and I think it did a disservice to Larry Niven and Jerry Pournell. It appears that the author curled up with a thesaurus to write the book. The text was also very disjointed.

Outies (Mote Series Book 3) - Kindle edition by Pournelle ... Pournelle's daughter wrote this continuation of the Mote Series that began with the classic THE MOTE IN GOD'S EYE, co-authored by Niven. The two men wrote two books in the series, both classics that are somewhat difficult to read due in large part to all the political/royal family aspects of the storyline. I love both books, especially the first.

Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle rocked the science fiction world with The Mote in God's Eye. Sentient, capable, and even charming, the "Moties" nevertheless proved to be enemies of humankind-not by intent, but by dint of biology. With a fresh point of view, deep continuity, and page-turning plot twists, Pournelle brings a new generation of Moties to life for a new generation of readers. Outies introduces new characters, adds depth to beloved old ones, creates a rich, imaginable world, and stands the very notion of "first contact" on its head by questioning what it means to be an alien and an outsider.

The accidental killing of a group of emissaries to Earth threatens man's survival

The two hundred colonists on board the Geographic have spent a century in cold sleep to arrive here: Avalon, a lush, verdant planet lightyears from Earth. Soon an implacable predator stalks them, picking them off one by one. In order to defeat this alien enemy, they must reevaluate everything they think they know about Avalon, and uncover the planet's dark secrets. BOOK TWO IN THE CLASSIC HEOROT SERIES FROM GENRE LEGENDS LARRY NIVEN, JERRY POURNELLE, AND STEVEN BARNES.
Some twenty years have passed since the passengers and crew of the starship Geographic established a colony on the hostile alien world of Avalon. In that time, a new generation has grown up in the peace and serenity of the island paradise of Camelot, ignorant of the Great Grendel Wars fought between their parents and grandparents and the monstrous inhabitants of Avalon. Now, under the influence of a charismatic leader, a group of young rebels makes for the mainland, intent on establishing their own colony, sure that they can vanquish any foe that should stand in their way. But they will soon discover that Avalon holds darker secrets still. At the publisher's request, this title is sold without DRM (Digital Rights Management). Having recently escaped from hell, Allan Carpenter is haunted by the imprisonment of unfairly tortured souls and partners with suicide-victim poet Sylvia Plath for a mission to return to hell and rescue the damned. By the co-authors of Inferno. 100,000 first printing.

Philip K. Dick Award finalist
Praise for Vandana Singh: " A most promising and original young writer. " —Ursula K. Le Guin " Lovely! What a pleasure this book is . . . full of warmth, compassion, affection, high comedy and low. " —Molly Gloss, author of The Hearts of Horses " Vandana Singh ' s radiant protagonist is a planet unto herself. " —Village Voice " Sweeping starscapes and daring cosmology that make Singh a worthy heir to Cordwainer Smith and Arthur C. Clarke. " —Chris Moriarty, Fantasy & Science Fiction " I ' m looking forward to the collection . . . everything I ' ve read has impressed me—the past and future visions in ' Delhi ' , the intensity of ' Thirst ' , the feeling of escape at the end of ' The Tetrahedron ' ..." —Niall Harrison, Vector (British Science Fiction Association) " ...the first writer of Indian origin to make a serious mark in the SF world ... she writes with such a beguiling touch of the strange. " —Nilanjana Roy, Business Standard
In her first North American collection, Vandana Singh ' s deep humanism interplays with her scientific background in stories that explore and celebrate this world and others and characters who are trying to make sense of the people they meet, what they see, and the challenges they face. An eleventh century poet wakes to find he is as an artificially intelligent companion on a starship. A woman of no account has the ability to look into the past. In "Requiem," a major new novella, a woman goes to Alaska to try and make sense of her aunt ' s disappearance. Singh's stories have been performed on BBC radio, been finalists for the British SF Association award, selected for the Tiptree award honor list, and oft reprinted in Best of the Year anthologies. Her dives deep into the vast strangeness of the universe without and within and with her unblinking clear vision she explores the ways we move through space and time: together, yet always apart.

Larry Niven's bestselling Man-Kzin series continues! The kzin, formerly invincible conquerors of all they encountered, had a hard time dealing with their ignominious defeat by the leaf-eating humans. Some secretly hatched schemes for a rematch, others concentrated on gathering power within the kzin hierarchy, and some shamefully cooperated with the contemptible humans, though often for hidden motives. In war and in uneasy peace, kzin and humans continue their adventures with a masterful addition to the Man-Kzin Wars shared universe created by multiple New York Times best seller, incomparable tale-spinner, and Nebula- and five-time Hugo-Award-winner, Larry Niven. Stories by Jane Lindskold, Charles E. Gannon, and more. At the publisher's request, this title is sold without DRM (Digital Rights Management).
