Outside Insight: Navigating a World Drowning in Data eBook

Outside Insight offers a new decision-making paradigm in which decisions are based on what the market will do, rather than what it has done. No one can predict the future, but by stepping back and seeing what companies across the industry are doing | instead of what just one company has done | leaders can make educated guesses on what actions to take next.

Book Review: Outside Insight | Navigating a world drowning in data. By Marco Serrato 13 septembre, 2018. Most companies today do not utilise external data in a systemic manner but instead focus their analyses and rigour on internal data such as company financials. The problem with such an approach is that it is very reactive.
