PETTY CASH LOG - Beginner-Bookkeeping.com

The petty cash log is useful for keeping a running total of the balance left in the box – a good way to ensure the box doesn't run short of cash. If your petty cash is very small and used very little then you can get away with not using a petty cash log but instead enter the information straight from the vouchers into the bookkeeping system at the end of the month when it is time to reconcile the petty cash.
