San Francisco's residential real estate is the hottest market for buyers and sellers in the country. If you're planning on entering the market, you may need the advice of real estate agent Malcolm Kaufman (BRE#01310392). For ten years, Kaufman has chronicled the region's real estate market. Through this publication, he has educated buyers on how to save money and sellers on how to maximize their profit. For the first time, these articles are now collected into one book-with sections dedicated to topics like changing neighborhoods, the factors driving San Francisco real estate, and what to keep in mind when buying/selling a home. Pulse of the Market offers an array of valuable information from an insider who knows both ends of the spectrum. So whether you're a buyer or a seller, Kaufman can help you make more informed decisions and negotiate a better deal. Just like his monthly newsletters, Kaufman's book is both concise and entertaining. A San Francisco resident, he knows what makes the area's real estate market tick-bringing his extensive knowledge in this one-of-a-kind guide to the hottest market around.

"Everyone knows that finding the right house at the right price is the goal right? But how do you actually do that? And are all of the deal breaking critical steps in between? That is what this book is all about ... everything you need to know about buying your first home"--Page 4 of cover.
