Photosynthesis Research   Home – Springer Term Paper # 1. Introduction to Photosynthesis: Photosynthesis is the physico-chemical process by which producers of nature such as plants, algae and photosynthetic bacteria use light energy to drive the synthesis of organic compounds.
Term Paper on Photosynthesis   Chemical Process   Plants ... Sample Paper March 7, 2017 Photosynthesis is a process through which plants produce their food. In this process, plants absorb water from the soil through roots and carbon dioxide gas from the air through leaves and combine both of them to build glucose. There are many factors which are necessary for photosynthesis.
Factors Necessary For Photosynthesis In Plants Photosynthesis is the process by which plants and other organisms, such as photosynthetic algae and bacteria, take light energy and convert it into chemical energy in the form of carbohydrates. Photosynthesis occurs in the chloroplast of the cell which contains the organelle chlorophyll. Chlorophyll absorbs the energy of sunlight.
