"Something new – my wedding dress!" Something Borrowed. Kate Middleton had the ultimate borrowed accessory on her wedding day when the Queen lent her a sparkling vintage diamond tiara. While your new in-laws may not have something quite as valuable to lend you, your mother-in-law may be delighted to lend you a vintage accessory or brooch to decorate your bridal bouquet. We think accessories are a great thing to borrow if you can.

Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed and Something Blue are tokens of good luck for the bride on her wedding day. Originating from a charming Victorian rhyme, these small personal treasures are typically unique to each bride and given by those who love her the most. Something old represents continuity; something new offers optimism for the future; something borrowed symbolises borrowed happiness; something blue stands for love and fidelity, and a sixpence is a wish for good ...

A cake topper/knife: The passing down of a cake knife from generation to generation is definitely the sweetest something borrowed. Ask your parents if they still have theirs and they'll be tickled pink. For a modern twist, you could ask to use a friend's cake topper instead. This works well if the topper is text or a pretty design.
