"Strangers in the Night" is a song composed by Bert Kaempfert with English lyrics by Charles Singleton and Eddie Snyder. Kaempfert originally used it under the title "Beddy Bye" as part of the instrumental score for the movie A Man Could Get Killed. The song was made famous in 1966 by Frank Sinatra, although it was initially given to Melina Mercouri, who thought that a man's vocals would better ...

In Hitchcock ' s Strangers on a Train (1951), Bruno Antony (Robert Walker)'s costume, mannerisms, and dialogue create a character exposition in which he is clearly homosexual. However, there are homosexual undertones present beyond the outright coded messages of his limp wrists, sashaying walk, and flower-patterned tie.
