American author Emma Cline. It is loosely inspired by the Manson Family and the murder of actress Sharon Tate. The majority of the novel is set in 1969 and focuses on 14 year old Evie Boyd who feels isolated and unloved and ends up spending the majority of that summer with a group of teenage girls on a ranch who are all devoted to a man named Russell.

Synopsis The woozy vibe of psychedelic California suffuses this sinuous thriller based on the warped appeal of the Manson Family. Drenched in the searing heat of the summer of 69, Cline's disturbing debut is a hypnotic depiction of personality cults, countercultural conformity and psychopathy masquerading as peace and love.
