The Grimorium Verum is an 18th-century grimoire attributed to one "Alibek the Egyptian" of Memphis, who purportedly wrote in 1517. Like many grimoires, it claims a tradition originating with King Solomon. The grimoire is not a translation of an earlier work as purported, its original appearing in French or Italian in the mid-18th century, as noted already by A. E. Waite who discussed the work in his The Book of Ceremonial Magic, stating: The date specified in the title of the Grimorium Verum is
