Chil Rajchman, a Polish Jew, was arrested with his younger sister in 1942 and sent to Treblinka, a death camp where more than 750,000 were murdered before it was abandoned by German soldiers. His sister was sent to the gas chambers, but Rajchman escaped execution. This book tells his story

Treblinka : a survivor's memory, 1942-43 - London Borough ...

This book tells of the events that occurred in Treblinka, a camp built solely for murder and despicable acts of torture. It offers a unique perspective of what life was like to survive in a death camp, and it is a truly horrifying read. This was very short and easily understandable. However, I had issues with the writing style.
